

"Loved the show...a winner! What a wonderful trip through the forgotten years of music between the end of WWII and the birth of rock and roll. An incredible concert interwoven with the stories behind the music we all know so well"

Dave Chesney, publisher of the White Rock Sun and former executive CBS Music

"JUMP! is an awesome show. Diane Lines' piano and vocals are wonderful, and my feet kept tapping all night long. It took me to an era I always wanted to experience, now I feel as though I have!"

Rich Daniels
Afternoon Drive Host
91.5FM EZ Rock Radio

"A wonderful performance! JUMP! was a great season finale for the North Florida Artist Series' 2011-2012 season"

Kim Scarboro, Coordinator of College Advancement, North Florida Community College, Madison, Florida

"A GREAT SHOW! 'Jump!' is an exciting musical journey from the demise of the big-band sound at the end of the Second World War through the 1950s of swing, jump blues and eight-to-the-bar boogie-woogie and deposits the audience at the door of the rock 'n roll era."

Barb Brower, Salmon Arm Observer

"Top-notch showmanship. Rave reviews from guests told us this was our best show yet! "

Stephan Wittmer, manager, Quaoout Theatre, Chase, BC

Here's what audience members had to say about JUMP!

"An amazing show! I was just grinning the whole time, absolutely wonderful, great songs and great performances."

Robert F., Ladner, BC

"JUMP! has it all - great repertoire, tight band who all looked like they love being there, humor, fascinating storytelling, awesome sound quality, and of course Diane Lines!!! Her voice, her piano playing and her way of owning the stage are magnificent."

Claudia M, Calgary, Alberta

"Outstanding in every way! I haven't seen anything so uplifting and toe tapping in a long time. I didn't want it to end. I LOVED it all!"

Nancy H., Vancouver, BC

"Diane Lines is exceptional with her piano playing, singing and engaging with the audience. She is a multi-talented entertainer and delivers her songs, stories and music with a crisp clear quality that can only make you ask for more"

Germaine and Clem J, Steveston, BC